Chef Ann Cooper

Changing the Way We Feed Our Kids

Dubbed the Renegade Lunch Lady for a reason, come and listen to Chef Ann as she shares how she envisions a time soon when being a chef working to feed children fresh, delicious and nourishing food will no longer be considered “renegade.” Do one thing!

Chef Ann Cooper is a celebrated author, chef, educator and enduring advocate for better food for all children. In a nation where children are born with shorter estimated life expectancies than their parents because of diet-related illness, Ann is a relentless voice of reform by focusing on the links between school food and children’s health and wellness.

Featured in The New Yorker, The New York Times, The Washington Post, The San Francisco Chronicle, The Chicago Tribune, Newsweek, Time Magazine and has appeared on NPR’s Living on Earth, ABC’s Nightline, CNN, PBS’ To The Contrary, the CBS Morning Show, and many other media outlets.

Ann is the author of four books: Lunch Lessons: Changing the Way We Feed Our Children (2006), In Mother’s Kitchen: Celebrated Women Chefs Share Beloved Family Recipes (2005), Bitter Harvest: A Chef’s Perspective on the Hidden Dangers in the Foods We Eat and What You Can do About It and A Woman’s Place is in the Kitchen: The Evolution of Women Chefs.

Chef Ann is happily working overtime as a Chef, Nutrition Services Director, Consultant, Author, Public Speaker and Advocate because she sees a need for change and has the gifts to help. www.chefannfoundation.org

Rachel Powell

Lets Move, Child Care

Rachel Powell, PhD, CHES, CPH

Rachel is an ORISE Fellow in the Division of Nutrition, Physical Activity, and Obesity at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta, GA. She serves as the Operations Manager for Let’s Move Child Care, a sub-initiative of Michelle Obama’s Let’s Move, which focuses on obesity prevention in children ages 0-5 years old in early child care and education settings. How about a #GimmeFive for Rachel Powell!

Maryann Jacobsen

Fearless Feeding Philosophy -- the what, how and why of feeding the first 5 years of life .

Maryann has been a registered dietitian for over 16 years. She has worked in many capacities from outpatient nutrition counselor to corporate dietitian to freelance writer. She works with every stage of life — children, adults and the elderly. Maryann considers herself a “family nutrition expert” because she understands each stage of development and consider them all to be closely linked. Maryann blogs under Raise Healthy Eaters for Huffington Post and has written for the New York Times, Motherlode, CookingLight.com, My Recipes and other popular blogs. Maryann’s first book, was coauthored with Jill Castle, MS, RD, Fearless Feeding: How to Raise Healthy Eaters from High Chair to High School, came out in April 2013. She recently released an e-book entitled: From Picky to Powerful: Transform Your Outlook on Picky Eating and End Food Battles Forever!

Jill West

Helping the Picky Eater: Strategies for Parents and Providers

An accomplished speaker, author, Registered Dietitian (RD), Certified Health Coach and Mom of 3 boys. For over 25 years Jill has worked with thousands of individuals and families as a Registered Dietitian, Nutrition Consultant and Health Coach. She has worked for several major hospitals including University of California San Francisco Medical Center, Joslin Diabetes Center – an affiliate of Harvard Medical School and University of California Davis Medical Center. Jill is a favorite speaker in and out of California and the author of the book 400 Moms!

Geri Henchy

Child Nutrition Reauthorization

Director of Nutrition Policy at FRAC, Geri is a member of the Institute of Medicine’s Committee to Review the Child and Adult Care Food Program Meal Requirements. They had the task of creating nutrition standards to bring the meals served into compliance with the Dietary Guidelines. Geri is the current chair of the policy committee of the American Public Health Association’s Food and Nutrition Section. She currently serves on the CACFP Paperwork Reduction.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 26, 2015 9:00AM-12:00PM (No Charge for this Pre Conference Session)

Successful Recordkeeping in the Child and Adult Care Food Program

Brandi Airada and Justin Adelman, CDE, NSD, CACFP

In this training, we will revisit the importance of recordkeeping in the Child and Adult Care Food Program. The session will open with examples of the most common scenarios resulting in findings and the monetary consequences of inadequate recordkeeping. This training will cover ways to prevent these costly mistakes by reviewing all the basic recordkeeping requirements for all program types in the CACFP.

In addition to the basic recordkeeping review, the training will include three focus areas providing more detailed information about personnel activity reports, health and safety requirements and procurement guidelines. At the conclusion of the power point, the panel will open the floor for questions.

California CACFP Agencies

The California Department of Education (CDE) will be offering its 2015-16 Mandatory Training for all CACFP agencies as a pre-conference session on Monday, October 26, 2015 from 9:00-12:00. If you attend this session you will not be required to take the 2015-16 mandatory training again later in the year. You must create an account (if you do not already have one) and pre-register for the course with the Fresno City College Cal-Pro-NET Center at <http://www.fresnocitycollege.edu/index.aspx?page=2994>.

The deadline to register is October 16, 2015.

No walk-ins will be permitted. *Pre-registration is required.

Non-California CACFP Agencies

To attend the pre-conference session, you will need to pre-register by sending your contact information to the Fresno City College Cal-Pro-NET Center: fcc.calpronet@fresnocitycollege.edu. Please state that you would like to attend the pre-conference session and include your name, address, phone number and e-mail.

*Do not create an account on the Fresno City College Cal-Pro-NET Center.

The deadline to register is October 16, 2015.

★If Only We Knew What He Knows! Mr. Tom Copeland will be sharing his expertise in two different workshops this week. The Role of CACFP Helping Providers Start and Stay in Business and Successful Strategies to Recruit and Keep Providers on CACFP, don't miss your opportunity to know what he knows!

Tom Copeland is a renowned tax and child care business specialist and licensed attorney. Tom graduated from Macalester College (BA) in 1972 and from William Mitchell College of Law (JD) in 1980. He trains thousands of family child care providers and trainers each year on important business issues; including record keeping, taxes, marketing, contracts, and legal issues. Tom is also the author of many books and resources for family child care providers.

In 2003, he won the Friends of NAFCC Award from the National Association for Family Child Care. In 1998, he won the Child Care Advocate of the Year award from the Minnesota Licensed Family Child Care Association. He has represented numerous providers in IRS audits and has won six US Tax Court cases. In 2003, the IRS issued Revenue Procedure 2003-22 that allows family child care providers to use a standard meal allowance rate to claim food expenses. Tom was the author of the proposal that led to this rule.

★Erroneous Payments in Child Care Centers Study The Improper Payments Elimination and Recovery Act of 2012 (IPERA)

Frederick Glanz, President, Kokopelli Associates

The Improper Payments Elimination and Recovery Act of 2012 (IPERA) requires USDA to annually estimate improper payments in the CACFP. Westat and its subcontractors, Kokopelli Associates, and Windwalker Corporation are conducting the Erroneous Payments in Child Care Centers Study (EPICCS) for the USDA Food and Nutrition Service. This study is developing and testing a methodology that FNS can use to annually estimate improper payments in the child care center component of the CACFP. The study will include a nationally representative sample of 450 participating centers and a representative sample of households. The study will include AL, AK, CA, CO, CT, FL, GA, ID, IL, KS, LA, MD, MO, NC, OH, PA, SC, TN, TX, VA, WA, WI.
